

MILL HILL PRIMARY ACADEMY

Work Hard, Dream Big and Never Give Up.

CAREERS POLICY

Updated: July 2020

1. Introduction:

This policy summarises the statutory guidance and recommendations and outlines the provision of careers education, work experience and provider access. It is in line with the statutory guidance developed by the Department for Education 2018 which refers to sections 42A, 42B and 45A of the Education Act 1997, section 72 of the Education and Skills Act 2008 and the government's careers strategy (2017).

2. Aims and purpose:

- Prepare students for the transition to life in and beyond secondary school and post 16 (higher education and the world of work)
- Support students in making informed decisions which are suitable and ambitious for them
- Provide students with well-rounded experiences
- Develop characteristics e.g. social skills, communication, innovation, resilience and leadership which support high achieving students in the curriculum and in their careers
- Inspire and motivate students to develop their aspirations
- Ensure that a high number of student's progress to positive destinations such as apprenticeships, technical routes, sixth form colleges, further education colleges, universities or employment.
- Help all students take qualifications that offer them the best opportunity to continue in education or training

3. Expectations and requirements for Academies in the City Learning Trust.

All Academies will:

- a) Ensure all registered students are provided with independent careers guidance
  - b) be impartial,
  - c) include information on a range of education or training options, including apprenticeships and technical education routes,
  - d) be adapted to the needs of individual students,
- Provide a policy statement that sets out the circumstances in which education and training providers will be given access to students and that this is followed. This must include:
    - a) any procedural requirements in relation to requests for access,
    - b) grounds for granting and refusing requests for access,
    - c) details of premises or facilities to be provided to a person who is given access,
    - d) review the policy from time to time.

Please see Annex A

- Use the Gatsby Charitable Foundation's Benchmarks to improve careers provision and meet them by the end of 2020.
- Begin to offer every young person encounters with employers. Some of these encounters should be with STEM employers.
- Appoint a named person to the role of Careers Leader to lead the careers programme (by September 2018). This Careers Leader should have the energy and commitment, and backing from their senior leadership team, to deliver the careers programme across all eight Gatsby Benchmarks.
- Publish details of their careers programme for young people and their parents (from September 2018).

4. Gatsby Charitable Foundation's Benchmarks

All Academies in the Trust will use the Gatsby Charitable Foundation's Benchmarks to improve careers provision (meet them by the end of 2020). They include:

1. A stable careers programme
2. Learning from career and labour market information
3. Addressing the needs of each student
4. Linking curriculum learning to careers
5. Encounters with employers and employees.
6. Experiences of workplaces
7. Encounters with further and higher education
8. Personal guidance

Please refer to Annex B for more details.

5. Statutory duties

The Board of Directors and Local Governing Body will:

- a) ensure that the statutory requirements and expectations are met in point 3.
- b) provide clear advice and guidance to the head teacher on which he/she can base a strategy for careers education and guidance which meets the Academy's legal requirements, is developed in line with the Gatsby Benchmarks and informed by the requirements set out in this document.
- c) have a member of the governing body who takes a strategic interest in careers education and guidance and encourages employer engagement.

Annex A: Policy statement on provider access

Mill Hill Primary Academy: Provider Access Policy

Introduction

This policy statement sets out the school's arrangements for managing the access of providers to students at the academy for the purpose of giving them information about the provider's education or training offer. This complies with the school's legal obligations under Section 42B of the Education Act 1997.

Student entitlement

All students in all years are entitled:

- to find out about technical education qualifications and apprenticeships opportunities, as part of a careers programme which provides information on the full range of education and training options available at each transition point;
- to hear from a range of local providers about the opportunities they offer, including technical education and apprenticeships – through options events, assemblies and group discussions and taster events;
- to understand how to make applications for the full range of academic and technical courses.

Management of provider access requests

Procedure

A provider wishing to request access should contact Nathan Owen (Business and Careers Link)

Telephone: (01782) 234466; Email: Nowen@millhillprimaryacademy.coop

Opportunities for access

A number of events, integrated into the school careers programme, will offer providers an opportunity to come into school to speak to students and/or their parents/carers. Please speak to our Careers Leader to identify the most suitable opportunity for you.

Premises and facilities

The academy will make the main hall, classrooms or private meeting rooms available for discussions between the provider and students, as appropriate to the activity. The academy will also make available AV and other specialist equipment to support provider presentations. This will all be discussed and agreed in advance of the visit with the Careers Leader or a member of their team.

Providers are welcome to leave a copy of their prospectus or other relevant course literature at the main reception / careers room.

Approval and review

Approved by _____

Next review:

Annex B

The Gatsby Benchmarks
1. A stable careers programme	Every school and college should have an embedded programme of career education and guidance that is known and understood by students, parents, teachers, governors and employers.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Every school should have a stable, structured careers programme that has the explicit backing of the senior management team, and has an identified and appropriately trained person responsible for it.</li> <li>• The careers programme should be published on the school's website in a way that enables pupils, parents, teachers and employers to access and understand it.</li> <li>• The programme should be regularly evaluated with feedback from pupils, parents, teachers and employers as part of the evaluation process.</li> </ul>
2. Learning from career and labour market information	Every student, and their parents, should have access to good quality information about future study options and labour market opportunities. They will need the support of an informed adviser to make best use of available information.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• By the age of 14, all pupils should have accessed and used information about career paths and the labour market to inform their own decisions on study options.</li> <li>• Parents should be encouraged to access and use information about labour markets and future study options to inform their support to their children.</li> </ul>
3. Addressing the needs of each student	Students have different career guidance needs at different stages. Opportunities for advice and support need to be tailored to the needs of each student. A school's careers programme should embed equality and diversity considerations throughout.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A school's careers programme should actively seek to challenge stereotypical thinking and raise aspirations.</li> <li>• Schools should keep systematic records of the individual advice given to each pupil, and subsequent agreed decisions.</li> <li>• All pupils should have access to these records to support their career development.</li> <li>• Schools should collect and maintain accurate data for each pupil on their education, training or employment destinations.</li> </ul>
4. Linking curriculum learning to careers	All teachers should link curriculum learning with careers. STEM subject teachers should highlight the relevance of STEM subjects for a wide range of future career paths.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• By the age of 14, every pupil should have had the opportunity to learn how the different STEM subjects help people to gain entry to, and be more effective workers within, a wide range of careers.</li> </ul>
5. Encounters with employers and employees	Every student should have multiple opportunities to learn from employers about work, employment and the skills that are valued in the workplace. This can be through a range of enrichment activities including visiting speakers, mentoring and enterprise schemes.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Every year, from the age of 11, pupils should participate in at least one meaningful encounter* with an employer.</li> </ul> *A 'meaningful encounter' is one in which the student has an opportunity to learn about what work is like or what it takes to be successful in the workplace.

6.Experiences of workplaces	Every student should have first-hand experiences of the workplace through work visits, work shadowing and/or work experience to help their exploration of career opportunities, and expand their networks.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• By the age of 16, every pupil should have had at least one experience of a workplace, additional to any part-time jobs they may have.</li> <li>• By the age of 18, every pupil should have had one further such experience, additional to any part-time jobs they may have.</li> </ul>
7.Encounters with further and higher education	All students should understand the full range of learning opportunities that are available to them. This includes both academic and vocational routes and learning in schools, colleges, universities and in the workplace.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• By the age of 16, every pupil should have had a meaningful encounter* with providers of the full range of learning opportunities, including Sixth Forms, colleges, universities and apprenticeship providers. This should include the opportunity to meet both staff and pupils.</li> <li>• By the age of 18, all pupils who are considering applying for university should have had at least two visits to universities to meet staff and pupils.</li> </ul> *A 'meaningful encounter' is one in which the student has an opportunity to explore what it is like to learn in that environment.
8.Personal guidance	Every student should have opportunities for guidance interviews with a career adviser, who could be internal (a member of school staff) or external, provided they are trained to an appropriate level. These should be available whenever significant study or career choices are being made.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Every pupil should have at least one such interview by the age of 16, and the opportunity for a further interview by the age of 18.</li> </ul>